APPROVED BY PRESIDENT.

Plans Made for Opening Ellipse to Base Ball Players.

Amateur base ball players and their friends will be highly gratified to know that the President has approved plans for the opening of the ellipse south of the White House for their benefit during the coming summer. The idea was suggested by Col. Smith, the district officer in charge of public buildings and grounds, and received the hearty endorsement of the President, who is said to appreciate the scarcity of available playgrounds for field sports and to desire to render all possible assistance in the matter. The ellipse, which is also known as the President's Park and the White Lot, before its improvement many years ago, was generally used by the citizens of Washington as a base ball park and many historical games have been played there in the early days of base ball, when George Wright was a tower of strength on the local base ball line.

Gen. Mackenzie, chief of engineers, and Mr. Symons are now considering plans for the transformation of the ellipse into a public base ball park. Although their plans are not fully made, it is probable that the ellipse will be divided into two parts, the one to the best advantage, and that they will be placed at the disposal of all amateur base ball organizations in the city under such rules and regulations as will insure the protection of the park and the preservation of good order during the games. Permits to use the diamond will be issued by Colonel Symons in such a way as to enable the different organizations to play without favoritism or discrimination.

CANAL LEGISLATION.

Amendment to Carry Goods in American Vessels.

McKINLEY'S LAST TALK

HISTORIC WORDS TO BE PRINTED AS PUBLIC DOCUMENT.

Senator Morgan Discusses Financial Phases of the Panama Litigation and Wants to Know Reasons for Delay.

Upon the request of Mr. Fairbanks the Senate today heard the last speech at Buffalo as a public document. In presenting the request Mr. Fairbanks stated that there are many inquiries for the address. The following bills were passed: Fixing the salary of the United States consul at New Chwang, China, at $4,000 per annum.

Providing for the opening of the abandoned Fort Abraham Lincoln military reservation in Morton county, N. D., to settlement under the homestead law.

Mr. Hale Presented an Amendment to the Panama Canal Government Bill Requiring that all Stores, Machinery and Men to be Used in Connection with the Construction of the Canal be Employed on United States Built Vessels Whenever Reasonable Rates can be Secured.

When the bill was taken up Mr. Morgan offered a general disclaimer of the opinion that some occult influence was operating to secure expedition. He then temporarily withdrew his substitute for the entire bill, asking that the bill be read section by section for amendment.

A Substitute Offered.

This request being complied with, he offered section 11 of his bill appropriating the $100,000 to be paid to Panama as a substitute for the first section of the bill proposed by the Senate committee. He said that until the purchase of the property was consummated nothing else should be done, and that the pending bill made no provision for the acquisition of the Panama railroad and the ships owned by the new Panama Canal Company.

Mr. Morgan spoke of the delay in paying the ten millions to Panama, and implored republican senators to give the reasons for the delay. "I do not," he said, "give it to you."

He accused the President of defying the law by not paying the money to Panama, and again referring to the difficulty of securing information from the Panama Canal Company. He said that the Panama Canal Company is a fraudulent corporation in Paris, or possibly in New York, if it still nearer home, is to be found the explanation of the mystery and delay. Somebody is going to profit by it. Who is it?

Strikes at Loomis.

Mr. Morgan spoke of the interests of France and a banquet at which "the celebrated Banu-Variella and the equally celebrated Loomis met together and congratulated each other on some dangerous situation which they had avoided by the intervention of the French citizens they were protecting."

Mr. Morgan said that it must have been something that Mr. Banu-Variella was familiar with, that he had been in the Loomis "can be charged with excessive familiarity with anything outside of the United States." Mr. Morgan said it was the interest of French citizens they were protecting.

Mr. Morgan read from an article giving an account of the British government sending a gunboat to Nicaragua for the protection of the Mosquito Indians, under a treaty entered into between Great Britain and the United States. The article stated that the "Mosquito question" has been stirred up to disguise a plan on the part of Great Britain to bring about the building of a canal by the United States.

Mr. Morgan concluded by saying that Mr. Kittredge was "burning with anxiety to reply."

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

At the opening of the session of the House today the Speaker announced the resignation of Mr. Lind (Minn.) from the committee on claims, and the appointment of Mr. Emerich (Ind.) in his place.

The yeas and nays were ordered on the adoption of a special rule to take up and consider the Cooper bill amending the Philippine government bill, and providing for the issuance of bonds for building railroads in the islands.

By a vote of 134 to 114 the previous question was ordered.

The result of the general election of the House of Representatives, the last of the general appropriation bills to be considered at this session.

Justice Charged.

Mr. Crumpacker (Ind.) made the assertion that the minority of the committee on insular affairs had not pointed out any error in the bill proposed by Mr. Jones (Va.). He said that as the bill is now drafted it admits free the products of the steel trust, while it continues to impose upon the Philippines a customs duty upon $12,000,000 worth of rice imported there during the last twelve months.

Mr. Daizeid said he had heard no argument in the committee on insular affairs, and had the unanimous approval of the public members of the committee and the unanimous opposition of the democratic minority. He answered the criticisms in the report of the minority members of the committee with respect to the establishment of a representative government in the Philippines by saying that from the very nature of things no such government could exist in these islands, because the Filipino could not stand alone, and in support of this declaration he quoted from reports of Admiral Dewey, General Otis and Commissioners Schurman and Worcester, who entertained that view.

POLITICAL MANEUVERS.

Anti-Norris Men Meet and Form Plans of Action.

DEMOCRATS GATHER.

ENTHUSIASTIC CONCLAVE AT MACCABEE TEMPLE LAST NIGHT.

Colored Republicans of the District Likely to Choose Patterson as Delegate to National Convention.

The anti-Norris democratic central committee met last night at the office of its chairman, Capt. J. A. Collins, in the Kellogg building. The meeting was fully attended, every member of the committee being present in person or by proxy. Four or five vacancies existed on the committee, which were immediately filled, and the conclusion of this business the committee proceeded with the selection of a new executive committee. The members of the old executive committee were Messrs. Collins, chairman; O'Meara, Carr, Slater and O'Dea. The new executive committee is composed of Messrs. Collins, chairman; O'Meara, Carr, Shulties and Costello.

By a unanimous vote it was determined by the committee that their central committee shall hereafter be known as the anti-Norris democratic central committee (district) of the District of Columbia. A list of names to be presented to the elections committee as judges was adopted, and the committee on electioneering made up its tickets in the different districts, and has almost completed the list of delegates to the St. Louis convention. The committee is in charge of the conduct of the Hearst campaign in the District, and all of the Hearst delegates to the national convention will be in the election of Hearst's delegates to the local convention, and will be represented by the committee in any matter that may come before the committee on electioneering. The meeting was a very harmonious one. At his own request the name of Mr. Chas. W. Anti-Church Sentiment.

It begins to look as if John W. Patterson and James E. Gray will be the choice of the anti-church democrats of the District for delegate and alternate, respectively, to the republican national convention, to be held in Chicago. The anti-church sentiment, which is declared by all posted local politicians to be in undisputed power at present, has been feeling its way during the meetings which have been held in the several districts. Finally the situation reached its climax in the case of the anti-church democrats of the District.

The meeting was a very harmonious one. At his own request the name of Mr. Chas. W. Slater was dropped from the list as a member of the executive committee, and it is understood that Mr. Slater has retired from active work in local politics.

REPORT OF HEALTH OFFICE SHOWING CONDITIONS THE PAST WEEK.

The weekly report of the health department, submitted to the Commissioners by Dr. W. W. Woodward today, shows that the deaths in the District of Columbia during the week ended on Saturday, April 9, 1904, numbered 132, which is seven more than occurred during the previous week and forty-seven more than during the corresponding period of last year. Of these deaths seventy-seven were among the whites, and fifty-five among the colored, representing a death rate per 1,000 white population of 19.1, a colored death rate of 31.2, and for the entire city a death rate of 24.7.

The comparative death rates for the corresponding period of 1903 were as follows: For the whites, 12.5; for the colored, 31.2; and for the entire city, 24.7. The prevailing diseases responsible for the mortality of last week were consumption, 22; pneumonia, 11; diseases of the heart, 8; and malignant diseases, 7.

The changes in contagious diseases were as follows: Diphtheria shows a decrease from 14 to 9 cases, there having been but 2 new cases reported and 2 discharged. Scarlet fever also shows considerable decrease in the number of cases, from 41 cases at the beginning of the week to 33 cases on Saturday, there having occurred 9 new cases and 11 discharged.

INSTRUCTED DELEGATES.

The President Has Now 343 to 103 Uninstructed.

Yesterday's action of the New York state republican convention in directing the delegates at-large from New York to work for the renomination of President Roosevelt brings the total number of delegates instructed for Roosevelt up to 343. The uninstructed delegates number 103.

Although the convention yesterday "directed" the delegates to vote for Roosevelt instead of instructing them, the action is conceded by all to be equivalent to instruction. Even some of the President's enemies in the convention conceded that the action was entirely favorable to the President and should have no other construction. It is noted that of the district delegates thus far chosen in New York state seven-four have been instructed for Roosevelt and twenty-four elected without instructions. While the unit rule does not prevail among republicans, it is assumed that the action of the state convention yesterday will be accepted by the uninstructed delegates as binding upon them, and that they will go with the majority for Roosevelt.

Of the 103 uninstructed delegates elected throughout the country it is claimed more than a majority will vote for Roosevelt. For example, in Pennsylvania only fifteen delegates have been instructed for Roosevelt and eighty-five are without instruction. It is a fact, however, that Pennsylvania is one of the strongest of the Roosevelt states, and the delegates from that state, especially if there should be any signs of faltering or hanging back on the part of the delegates, will be influential.

The table of instructed and uninstructed delegates elected by the districts throughout the country thus far is as follows:
